Per our conversation today, only two press comments have been seen here, so far, speculating on Gen. Maxwell Taylor as the next DCI. Both of them were by C. L. Sulzberger, on Oct 22 1960, and Feb. 8 1961; both stories attached.

Also attached is a recent biographical profile on General Taylor, from the New York Times, October 31, 1960. His birthday is August 26, 1901, according to "Who's Who."
